No. Issue

- #1 HB 2044 would expand Medicaid to provide Health Care for 150,000 more Kansans in need; Allows for Federal dollars to flow to the state and is projected to create thousands of new local jobs and Economic Development; Support
- #2 SB 55 Curtis Amendm't that provides for reinstating local governm't control to pay wages above minimum wage, benefits and hire responsible bidders of public contracts; Support
- #3 HB 2186 Stogsdill Amendm't to restore "due-process" rights for Teachers taken away a few years ago in a mid-night legislative session; Support
- #4 HB 2186 Final Action vote on the Arbitration bill that includes the Stogsdill Amendm't for Teacher due-process; Support
- #5 HB 2178 This was the 1st attempt to override the Gov repealing the irresponsible 2012 tax cuts; Provides fairer tax structure; Support
- #6 HB 2044 This vote was to override the Gov's veto of the bill to expand Medicaid; Critical to providing H.Care to 150,000 Kansans w/out; Support
- #7 SB 30 2nd and successful attempt to override the Gov's veto; It repeals the regressive 2012 tax cuts that allowed LLC's to not pay income taxes; It also phases back in the Home Mortgage deduction and the child and dependent care tax credit; Returns to 3 Tier Income Tax brackets; Support
- #8 SB 19 The bill sets the state on a path to begin to restore K-12 school funding deemed "inadequate" by the KS Supreme Ct.; Such underfunding has hurt our educational promise to the children of Kansa families which is in direct conflict with our state constitution; Support
- #9 HB 2002 Omnibus Budget bill that provides raises for most state employees of 2.5% & 5% depending on their last wage adjustm't; Support

#10 HB 2095 - Trucking bill that allows for special permits specific to truck, tractor-trailer combinations, the weight loads and redefines use of "triple axels"; Further, the bill compromises the structural integrity of our highways including bridges; Safety and costs are other issues; Oppose

*This scorecard is based on what Labor identified as important votes to working families and thus, not all bills passing this chamber became law.

Not all legislators served the entirety of the 2017 Legislative Session.

An override of a Governor's veto of a bill requires a 2/3 vote to pass or 84 yes votes in the House chamber.
